Published regularly on TUESDAYS, THURS-DAYS and SATURDAYS, at FIVE DOLLARS PER ANNUM, payable in advance.

CAPT FRY'S LETTER TO HIS WIFE. The New Orleans Times publishes the following extracts from the gallant Fry's last letter to his wife. It breathes a tenderness and purity in keeping with such a soul. The writflections upon the Spanish government, to which he gave utterance very forcibly, and his allusions to family matters, are omitted:

ON BOARD SPANISH MAN-OF-WAR LA TORNADO, ST. JAGO DE CUBA, Nov. 6 Dear, Dear Dita.—When I left you I had no idea that we should never meet again in this world, but it seems strange to me that I should to-night, and on Annie's birthday, be calmly seated, on a beautiful moonlight night, last leave of you, my own dear, sweet wife, and with the thought of your bitter anguish my only regret at leaving.

ly regret at leaving.

I have been tried to day and the president of the court-martial asked the favor of embracing me at parting, and clasped me to his heart. I have shaken hands with each of my judges; very few hours after my sentence is pronounced. I am told my death will be painless; in short, I have had a very cheerful and pleasant chat about my funeral, to which I shall go in a few hours from now. How soon I cannot yet say. It is curious to see how I make friends. Poor Bambetta pronounced me a gentleman, and he was the brightest and bravest creature

The priest who gave me communion on board this morning put a double scapular about my neck and a medal which he intends to wear himself. A young Spanish officer brought me a bright new silk badge with the Blessed Vir gio stamped upon it to wear to my execution, for him, and a handsome cross in some fair lady's handiwork. These are to be kept as re-lies of me. He embraced me affectionately in my room with tears in his eyes. * * *

Dear sweetheart, you will be able to bear it for my sake, for I will be with you if God permits it. Although I know my hours are short and few, I am not sad. I feel I shall always be with you right soon, dear Dita, and you will not be afraid of me.

Pray for me, and I will pray with you. * There is to be a fearful sacrifice of life from the Virginius, and as I think, a needless one, as the poor people are unconscious of crime and even of their fate up to now. I hope God will torgive if I am to blame for it.

If you write to President Grant he will probably order my pay due, when I resigned, paid to you after my death. * People will be kind to you now, dear Dita, at least I hope so. Do not dread death when it comes to you; it will be as God's angel of rest-remember this.

I hope my children will forget their father's harshness and remember his love and anxiety for them. May they practice regularly their religion, and pray for him always. * * *
Tel.—that the last act of my life will be a public profession of my faith and hope in Him, of whom we need not be ashamed, and it is not ment from any false modesty or timidity. May JOHN HAWXHURST, God bless and save us all *

God bless and save us all. Sweet, dear, dear Dita, we will soon meet again. Till then adieu, for the last time. Your devoted husband, JOSEPH FRY.

An eye-witness to the butchery of the thirtyseven states that Captain Fry was the only one killed at the first volley, and that the others were dispatched, after being wounded, by the marines placing the muzzles of their muskets in their eyes, mouths, and cars, and literally tion of the public patronage. blowing their heads off.

PHENOMENON.—A few days since some of of Duke and Union streets, where my son is officer town boys went up the river to hunt pheasour town boys went up the river to hunt pheasants. On their return they stopped at "Toney's Hole," a well known cave about a mile above town in Maryland, and whilst examining the surroundings, they discovered a crevice which seemed to open into a vault or chamber connected with the cave. After some little trouble they enlarged the hole sufficiently to enable them to see something of the interior, and to be able to make out the form of a skeleton extended on the floor of the chamber, which it is supposed is that of an Indian. One of the party, whilst looking into the hole, called out, "Hello! old fellow what are you doing down there?" and his amazement and that of the whole party may be better imagined than described when, in response to the inquiry, the answer was "No-thing!" They do say that the way the parties made tracks for town would not have disgraced a two-forty team on a shell road, and we doubt if any of them will venture again to disturb the dead Indian in Toney's Hole. - Shepherdstown Register.

THE CROPS.-The report of the Department of Agriculture for November and December make the tobacco crop six per cent less in yield than last year. The crop is in the best condition in Connecticut, all the New England tobacco raising States taking precedence of Virginia in that respect as does also Maryland. The average product of potatoes is fifteen per cent less than last year. The hay crop is about half a million of tons less, last year's crop being not far from twenty-four million tons. An analysis of the official returns for fifteen years show that the United States furnished the largest supply of wheat to Great Britain of any other country, the proportion being twentyseven per cent, while the proportion for Russia, which has been supposed to be the largest contributor, is but twenty-four per cent. The greater portion of the rest of the supply has been contributed by Germany, France and Brit- HUBS, which were made to our order of seasonother sources of supply.
